Nothing lasts forever... Except for love.

Beautiful photographer Monique Williams has spent her life on the move. She believes putting down roots will hold her back from her dreams. but a life as a rolling stone leaves her nights feeling lonely.

Country megastar Tanner Brock spends his time on tour dreaming of restoring the ranch that has belonged to his family for generations. His roots run deep, but life on the road has him spread thin.

Opposites attract, and clash, immediately when the two are thrown together. But with their time together slipping away, will Monique find the strength inside to trust in love that lasts forever?
