Duel on the Mesa Bill Dugan
His Hate Was All They Left Him

Dalton Chance was happy with the life he had -- a small spread in New Mexico, a devoted family. Then a murderous band of Apaches, drunk on smuggled whiskey, took everything away from him. Left with nothing but a gnawing hunger for revenge, Chance's every instinct is telling him to hunt the savage killers down -- but an unexpected ally is telling him there's more to this story. An Apache Army scout, Lone Wolf, knows firsthand that this bloody madness stems from the greed and cruelty of white traders. And when two unlikely companions united by tragic loss decide to ride together, what matters most won't be the different shades of their skin ... but the justice that's going to come blasting from their gun barrels.
