Sex and Money ...Are Dirty, Aren't They?: A Two - Part Guided Journal Cheri Huber

Sex and Money is a guided journal that provides exercises to lead readers to look at their attitudes, beliefs, and struggles with sex and money, subjects often thought to be outside the realm of spiritual practice. Essays on topics such as money, control, and how art portrays sexuality are interspersed throughout the book, encouraging readers to look more deeply, not judge themselves, accept what they see, and go beyond their limitations.
