Contemporary Latin American Fiction Keith H. Brower

The works selected for inclusion in this bibliography pertain to the most read and studied in undergraduate classes in Latin American Literature and comparative literature. The bibliography begins with a comprehensive introduction to orient the student and the citations that follow are arranged alphabetically by author and title. For each author, a general bibliography is included. The citations to secondary sources provide references to readily accessible works that discuss the author's life and achievements, often providing comparisons with contemporaries. An excellent reference and starting point for the undergraduate student--with or without fluency in Spanish or Portuguese.
