The life of the Italian juridical order, and that of the European one, that on May 25th will see the election of the new European Parliament, can not impede to read what happens in Italy, in Europe and in the world. The first characteristic of our societies is that they are based on the centuries-old political category of sovereignty, or State, either absolute or popular. In trying to give an overall picture of the concept of sovereignty, in the course of ancient history, we preferred to analyze the tensions and considerations faced by the same sovereignty of the individual.
