Story adapted from a highly acclaim novel titled D-Nine: Protectors of the Crown.

Dr James' life has always been straightforward. That is until he starts suffering with severe headaches and then things start to take a severe turn.

When James passes out from pain, he becomes another person – a beautiful teenage princess from another world, a princess whose life is in danger but who is suffering amnesia and can't remember where the threat is coming from. However with the doctor's intelligence and knowledge and her power and charisma, the princess battles and charms her way through many adventures until she stumbles upon a shocking plot.

As one life splits into two, the lines between what is real and what is imaginary seem to blur and James will surely have to choose which life he is meant to lead.
