Text Me, Guido Adrian Staccato

"Text Me, Guido" is the debut novel from author Adrian Staccato. Told entirely through text-messaging conversations, the book follows five Italian-American college friends as they complete their final semester of school. They are: Enzo, Sofia, Giulia, Claudia, and Phil. Enzo is your typical bronze-tanned Guido. The son of a wealthy home builder, he spends his days at the gym and his nights at the club. When he's not buying drinks for his friends, he's showering his longtime girlfriend, Sofia, with gifts - making her the envy of the neighborhood. Her friends, Giulia and Claudia, secretly hope the two will break it off, but Sofia is set on marriage and eagerly awaits Enzo's proposal. Enzo's friend, Phil, is the outcast of the group. He dislikes to party, and attributes the "Jersey Shore lifestyle" to the decline of civilization. Nevertheless, he finds himself infatuated with Giulia - a crush since kindergarten. Giulia, however, is wildly insecure and has no interest in his bookish ways. She has her heart set on Enzo - and with a little maneuvering, she might just get what she wants!
