Money can be replaced, but the true treasure discovered was through love lost. The time for rediscovering is now.

MONEY SEX & BABIES is the story of choice between fortune and family. When you are a young poor man in the South trying to succeed, many times love suffers. Trebor Frank discovers early in his pursuit of success that love gets in the way. Time was not on his side as he discovered while on his pursuit of moguldom and money, that he could not have it all. Struggling for years as a magazine publisher, he loses out on love and having a family. Many years later, through his growing enterprise and other businesses, Trebor recognized that through fueled fame, his fulfillment remained unsatisfied. As the reality of being alone became clear, his true worth could only be determined by having a family to share it with. Plagued by the possibility that because of his wants, he remains alone. Trebor is determined to find his need. With the realization that he might never find love, he devises an unorthodox plan for getting what he longs for most - a child. His method reveals the true nature of those who surrounded him, when it comes to fame and money, he learns the valuable lessons that was missed years ago.

Only through search, will he find if true love can withstand the test of time.
