When mother buckles Zachary and Carolyn into the car and kisses them good-bye, the plucky pair sets off on an adventure more exciting than anything they have seen on their television screen. Their trip to Grandfather's sunny studio is just the first leg of an incredible journey that takes them to the land of the dinosaurs, the caves of Stone Age story-tellers, and then smack into a herd of stampeding buffalo on the North American plains.

It is a journey into the world of dreams and imagination, a world where travel has no limits.

Lisa Suhay, fabulist and mother of three, and Louis Glanzman, esteemed portraitist, illustrator, and grandfather many times over, have collaborated to create a sparkling and colorful adventure story, featuring two spirited new heroes for young readers. Boys and girls will be agreeing with Carolyn when she says, THAT WAS FABULOUS! WHERE TO NEXT?
