Lessons from the Journey Sherry McLaughlin

" The path of the Journey is never straight... that's why they call it a walk of Faith. " Come journey with Sherry, a 38-year old business owner, wife, mother and overachiever as she shares lessons from the road of life. From the people she meets, to the places she goes, to the lessons that continue from the couch, the stories from Journey will comfort your heart and soul as you make your way through the path of life. In sharing in the journey, you will learn: * How heroes are made * How to never worry about money again * How to take a vacation without really planning one * What it is like to walk with God
