What the Bible really says about Slavery: This and other information on the issue of Slavery as it applies to History and Religion (Revised second edition) Elreta Dodds, Elreta Dodds, Noreta Dennard

"What the Bible really says about Slavery" gives sound scriptural argument against the notion that the Bible curses blacks to be slaves and that it supports the brutality of slavery that was once imposed upon black people in America. "What the Bible Really says about Slavery" is an apologetic (defense of the Christian faith). The book presents an exhaustive examination of the scriptures that address slavery in order to dispell the belief of many black Americans that Christianity is "the white man's religion."
