The Medieval Haggadah Anthology with the commentary of Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik David Holzer

The Medieval Haggadah Anthology is a unique collection of over 200 fascinating images from 35 medieval Hebrew manuscripts portraying the life and art of the Jewish community over 500 years ago. The images have all been digitally remastered to bring out the vibrancy of the art while still maintaining their original character. The images are analyzed focusing on every detail from a perspective of Rabbinic literature and an in depth knowledge of the customs of the period. The pages are further adorned with the brilliant analysis of Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik. His ideas are presented in a unique verbatim format to reflect the original energy with which they were presented. List Price $49.99
