For one year photographer Brian Peterson and writer Kerri Westenberg visited all four corners of Minnesota, each in a different season. Their exploration cut across the state and fueled the four-part travel series originally published in the Star Tribune. The many wonders they experienced are now collected here in this beautiful coffee table book. Peterson and Westenberg documented winter in the Arrowhead, spring in the Big Bog northwest, summer on the southwestern prairie, and autumn in Bluff Country. With over 100 full color photographs showcasing Minnesota's natural wonders, and stories capturing the essence of our theater of seasons, Minnesota - State of Wonders is a book every Minnesotan should be proud to own.
