This book explores how the science of communication can help one to get the most out of the experience of dating and romance. It can help to be more successful in an area which often is the most important in one's personal life. The solidly explained background illustrates how an insight into communication theory can give a great competitive advantage in beginning a short or long term relationship in the real world. This work explains in novel detail what really happens at each step starting with the approach of another human being all the way to the first date, while bringing out the magic of moments we usually do not even see, but where an understanding can make the difference between unbelievably fulfilling moments or a sense of devastating failure. The practical application lies at the heart of this unique and exciting book which can help improve one's personal life using the fruits of scientific research.
