Few would argue that our world is in great need of healing, individually and collectively, if life is to survive on this planet. Whether in a sense of one's own worth and purpose, interpersonal relationships, the broader context of international cooperation, or stewardship of humankind's earthly home, a profound transformation of thought and action is desperately needed. It begins with a deeper understanding of the creative Force of the cosmos commonly called God.

A new book for spiritual seekers explores the true nature of God and humankind, providing a clear path for those in need of transformation and healing. The author assures that as a deeper comprehension of God is gained, one's universe shifts and expands, new and infinite possibilities for a fulfilling life are revealed; indeed, all will find more success and contentment in life than could ever be imagined.

Built on the enlightenment and revelation of the ages, both ancient and new, One Infinite Light by metaphysician Liane France establishes that all humankind has an innate, direct, immediate, individual, intimate, indissoluble, eternal relationship with God; that each person is always one with God by reflection; and that this is a bond that can never be broken. Readers will also encounter a fresh and profound explanation of the ultimate purpose of life.
