Art of Islam, Language and Meaning (Library of Perennial Philosophy Sacred Art in Tradition) Titus Burckhardt

Known as an expert on Islam, Sufism, and Islamic arts & crafts, Burckhardt presents in-depth analyses of seminal examples of Islamic architecture, from Spain and Morocco to Persia and India. He examines Koranic calligraphy and illumination, arabesque, carpets and rugs, Persian miniatures, and much more while making illuminating comparisons with Christian, Hindu, and Buddhist art. Beautifully illustrated in color, this masterpiece is presented in a revised, commemorative edition containing 285 new illustrations and a new Introduction.

Carol Smith:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally.
